GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- 1.The prize is non-transferrable and there is no cash alternative.
- 2.Both parties must be over the age of 18 and at least one person of the couple must be in permanent continuous employment (including self-employment) as an essential service provider or volunteering to help those in need of support during Covid-19. The essential service provider or volunteer may be asked to provide proof of this.
- 3.The wedding date, if not already set by the couple, will be discussed between the couple and the suppliers. All suppliers have confirmed availability for the following dates: -October 14th, 2021, March 10th, 2022 March 27th ,2022 If none of these dates suit the couple, other possible dates will be discussed, but in this case all suppliers might not be available and their individual services will then be removed from the prize and the supplier indemnified from any claims and all financial responsibility arising for further cost incurred as a result.
- 4.The wedding will take place in the Republic of Ireland.
- 5.Individual contracts will be agreed between the winning couple and each individual supplier.
- 6.Business will not be taken away from any suppliers the couple have already booked. If you have already booked certain suppliers for your day, please inform us. The relevant supplier associated with this competition can then choose to offer you an alternative prize or will bow out of the competition without owing any alternative prize.
- 7.All professional images and videos taken by Aoife O'Sullivan Photography and Vowart Wedding Films, along with any images taken by any of the individual suppliers, may be used by all suppliers for advertising purposes across social media and individual websites/promotional material. By entering the competition, you consent to these images being used. The winners will be asked to sign an independent form consenting to the use of these images by the suppliers for the purposes of advertising their services.
- 8.If additional services are required by the couple, these should be discussed with the relevant supplier directly, and any additional cost agreed. No duplicate suppliers should be used, in order to prevent conflicts of interest.
- 9.The closing date for the competition is midnight on 31st May 2020.
- 10.Once all entries are received, a winner will be selected based on their written entry and eligibility
- 11.The winning couple will be contacted via telephone and email, which is why we ask for this on your entry. The winning couple may also be announced on social media; however, privacy is paramount and therefore your full names / contact details will not be published
- 12.If the winning couple do not wish to accept the prize, they must inform the competition organiser within 72 hours of being made aware of their win. This must be done in writing, via email to aherosweddingdream@gmail.com . This is to enable the suppliers to randomly select a new winner. If the winning couple decide to decline the prize within the 72 hours, they therefore forfeit any rights to any part of the prize and cannot change their mind later.
- 13.The competition is in no way affiliated to any social media platforms, although advertised on Facebook and Instagram.
- 14.All suppliers hold their own insurance, individual and specified to their business. If you wish to discuss any specific concerns, please speak to the individual supplier to see a copy of their insurance policy.

PRIVACY NOTICE

Article 2

To the extent that the performance by the competition providers of their obligations under this Agreement involves the processing of personal data (as defined in the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA) and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) (as amended, revised or replaced from time to time) on behalf of the winning couple, the competition providers agree:

- a) to process data solely in accordance with the instructions of the competition winners and the terms of this Agreement;
- b) to implement and maintain such technical and organisational security measures as may be required to comply with the competition provider's data security obligations under the DPA and GDPR;
- c) to notify the winner or any wedding guest of the winner and obtains its prior written approval to the transfer of personal data to a country or territory outside of the European Economic Area; and
- d) to enter into such other written agreement in respect of the processing or transfer of personal data as the competition provider may require.

Article 26.

26.1. Unless you indicate otherwise, I will deem your instructions in respect of reading this contract and entering the competition to constitute as appropriate consent for the maintenance and processing of your personal data under the provisions of the Data Protection Act 2018 and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

26.2. The data protection representatives are all the suppliers providing prizes for this competition, whom you can contact at aherosweddingdream@gmail.com

26.3. For entrants, we process your data: • in order to provide you with wedding services • in order to provide you with wedding advice.

26.4. The legal basis for the processing of this data is processing necessary for the performance of a contract to which you are a party.

26.6. There may also be limited circumstances where our legal basis for processing is based upon your written consent (where we have sought it and you have provided it to us), in which case you can withdraw your consent at any time. You must give us notice that you are withdrawing your consent.

26.7. You have the following rights under the GDPR, in certain circumstances and subject to certain exemptions, in relation to your personal data:

- right to access the data - you have the right to request a copy of the personal data that we hold about you, together with other information about our processing of that personal data.
- right to rectification- you have the right to request that any inaccurate data that is held about you is corrected, or if we have incomplete information you may request that we update the information such that it is complete.
- right to erasure - you have the right to request us to delete personal data that we hold about you. This is sometimes referred to as the right to be forgotten.
- right to restriction of processing or to object to processing - you have the right to request that we no longer process your personal data for particular purposes, or to object to our processing of your personal data for particular purposes.
- Right to data portability - you have the right to request us to provide you, or a third party, with a copy of your personal data in a structured, commonly used machine-readable format.

26.8. If I am processing personal data based on your consent, you may withdraw that consent at any time. This does not affect the lawfulness of processing which took place prior to its withdrawal.

26.9. In order for us to process your data on the basis of consent, please sign the signature block below and cross-out the relevant option (Yes/No) confirming I am permitted, based upon your consent, to process your data.

26.10. If you are unhappy with how we process personal data, we ask you to contact us so that we can rectify the situation.

26.11. You may lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority. The Irish supervisory authority is the Data Protection Commission.

26.12. If you do not provide us with your information for the purposes described above, we cannot provide you with wedding advice and/or services.
